

6516205721.txt

I travel and enjoy listening to my satellite radio. I can find out what the weather and traffic are like at home even when I am on the road. I find this very helpful in when trying to contact my family ok just knowing if they are save or in danger.

I do still listen to local radio as well but would find it to be a limit of my freedom if you decided to limit xmradio in order to benefit local stations and limit their competition.